FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

Asking for a Select Committee to Investigate---Postponement of the Texas Pacific Railroad Bills--Stanley Matthews' Connection with the Louisiana Frauds.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—SENATE.—Mr. Spencer, of Alabama, submitted the following: Resolved, In order that all facts connected with the presidential election of 1876, and result thereof, which was finally reached, may be made fully known to the American people that a Select Committee of eight Senators be appointed and instructed to inquire and investigate all charges of fraud, illegality, intimidation, violence, and other obstacles to a free and honest suffrage occuring at said election in the States of South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana, and also into all similar charges, which said committee may deem of sufficient gravity concerning said election in Alabama, Mississippi, Oregon or any other State. Also into all circumstances, which they may deem expedient to investigate connected with the Presidential electoral count in the Forty-fourth Congress. Also, into all circumstances of dissolution the Legislature and goverament in the State of Louisiana, known as the Packard Government and establishment of a Legislature known as the Nicholls, and to ascertain whether or not such dissolution of one government and the establishment of the other, was in consequence of any acts or transactions occuring prior to March 4th, 1877, or through what persons or agencies any such result was accomplished; and that said committee have power to appoint a sub-committee, employ clerks, and stenographers, administer oaths, to send for persons and papers, to examine witnesses to sit during recess with all powers of full committee of the Senate, and that expenses thereof be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate.

Bayard, of Delaware, moved that it lay over and be printed.

Spencer gave notice that he would call the resolution up every day until a vote upon it should be reached.

On motion of Matthews, of Ohio, the further consideration of the Texas Pacific Railroad bill, was postponed until the first Wednesday after the first Monday in December next.

In submitting the motion Matthews said after consultation with the friends of the measure, he had concluded not to submit his motion to make it the special order for that day, as he had previously announced.

The President pro tem, in response to several Senators, said the effect of the motion would simply dispose of the bill for the present session, but gave it no priority at the next session.

Bruce, of Mississippi, from the Committee on Pensions, reported in favor of concurring in the House amendment to the bill increasing the pension of Gen. James Shields, from $50, as the Senate proposed, to $100 a month. Placed on the calendar.

The President pro tem announced as a special committee to inquire into the alleged connection of Hon. Stanley Matthews with the Louisiana frauds, Edmunds, Allison, Ingalls, Hoar, Davis, of Illinois, Whyte, and Jones, of Florida.

During the morning hour, by a vote of yeas 55, nays 22, the bill recently reported from the committee on Transportation Routes to the seaboard, modifying the contract with James Beades, for construction of jetties at South Pass, Mississippi river, passed the Senate.

HOUSE.—The Elections Committee in Tilman vs. Smalls, from South Carolina, reported that there was no fair, peaceful election, and declaring the seat vacant. The minority reports declare Smalls, the sitting member, colored, entitled to his seat. Both reports were ordered to be printed, and the case set for Wednesday next.

Committee conference ordered on Mexican affairs.

Nominations—John C. Fremont, Governor of Arizona; John P. Hoyt, Governor of Idaho.

The Judiciary Committee of the House gave an hour and a half to Mr. Kimmetts bill, founded on the Montgomery Blair resolutions in the Maryland Legislature, looking to legal proceedings against Hayes' title to the Presidency. No action was taken, but the drift of debate indicated clearly that the report will be adverse, or at least, that action, in the direction indicated, is inexpedient at this time.

SENATE.—Bruce, from the Committee on Pensions, reported in favor of concurring in the House bill increasing the pension of General Shields to $100 per month. Placed on the calendar.

The army appropriation bill passed.

After amending the House bill forbidding the use of the army as a posse comitatus reads as follows: From and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful to employ any part of the army of the United States as a possee comitatus or otherwise for the purpose of executing the laws, except in such cases and under such circumstances, as such employment of said force may be authorized by the constitution or by act of Congress, and no money appropriated by this act shall be used to pay any of the expenses incurred in the employment of any troops in violation of this section.

The fishery award bill passed.

The river and harbor bill was taken up without progress. It comes up as unfinished business Monday.

HOUSE.—The Deficiency bill passed as it came from the committee, including three millions for claims against the Navy department. Night sessions for important business have been ordered for next week. The Conference committee's report for the government of the District of Columbia was adopted. The House is in session to-night on the Internal Revenue buill.

FRANKLIN CONVENTION.

Legislative and County Nominations.

Special dispatch to the News.

LOUISBURG, VIA FRANKLINTON, June 4.

In convention to-day, the following were nominated: For the House of Representatives, C. M. Cooke, Esq.; for Sheriff, H. C. Kearney; for Superior Court Clerk, W. H. A. Harris; for Register of Deeds, Ed. Jones; for Treasurer, Wm. T. Collins; for Surveyor, Wm. A. Moore; for Coroner, W. H. Hester.

The convention was entirely harmonious. Resolutions were passed endorsing the course of Hon. J. J. Davis in Congress, and the delegates from this county were instructed to cast the vote of the county for him in the next Congressional convention.

THE POTTER COMMITTEE.

Requesting the Production of Papers Relative to the Harlan-McVeagh Commission---Senator Matthews Snubs the Committee.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The Potter Committee has requested Mr. Evarts to furnish the Committee with all the original communications—written, printed or that which may be under his control and purporting to come from one or all of the members of the Harlan-McVeagh Commission, which was sent to New Orleans in April, 1877, together with certified copies of all communications written, printed or telegraphic, delivered to such Commission or any of the members thereof, from the State Department or from the President, and all that passed through the State Department.

Anderson's application for the Callao consulate had the following endorsements:

"For important reasons I specially request that this request be complied with." [Signed.]

STANLEY MATTHEWS.

Endorsement on the envelope:

"Executive Mansion. Anderson, Jas. E., of Louisiana;—application for appointment as U. S. Consul at Callao, Peru. Senator Matthews requests that this appointment be made for important reasons. Respectfully referred to the Secretary of State. By direction of the President: W. K. Rogers, Secretary. April 14, 1877."

Mr. Matthews to Mr. Evarts:

"Cincinnati, May 14, 1877.

"My Dear Sir—The bearer, Mr. Jas. E. Anderson, of New Orleans, is the gentleman in reference to whom, when last in Washington, I had a private conversation with you urging his appointment to a consulship.

"Mr. Anderson has had, until now, a subordinate clerkship in the Custom House at New Orleans, which has always been unsatisfactory to him, and now his residence there has become so unpleasant that he has abandoned it and his clerkship. The circumstances in which Mr. Anderson has been compelled to act a very difficult part, are such as to give him very strong claims upon the Administration in the public interest, and I do most earnestly urge that some satisfactory public employment may be found for him at once."

"Very truly,

"STANLEY MATTHEWS."

To Hon. Wm. M. Evarts, Sec. of State."

Senator Ferry replied to the invitation from the Committee to appear before them, that it was not convenient at present.

The Potter committee, McKenney for Clerk of the Grand Commission testified that the commission had the only printed copies of certificates before it. Recently the witness at suggestion of Mr. Garfield examined said certificates and found they had become mixed and were duplicated. When Garfield came to witness in the Supreme Court and suggested an examination Garfield said: "You will probably see the importance of this in a few days." There have been charges made that some of the certificates are forgeries—Witness said certificates were never compared after they came from the printer, and in some instances were sent direct from the printing office to the residence of members of the Commission.

Judge Levessee was re-called. The object he and Pitkin had in view in holding out hopes that Judge Levessee was purchasable for $200,000 was to keep the parties who were attempting to corrupt him from assailing the virtue of weaker members of the electoral college. Levessee has no idea who signed his name to the amended certificates.

Sherman and Anderson.

Philadelphia Record.

But the strongest proof yet afforded of Anderson's truthfulness comes from the man most interested in proving him a liar—Secretary Sherman. His halting and hesitating denial of the authorship of the letter imputed to him—of which only the copy of a copy was produced—did more for Anderson than Anderson was able to do for himself. Like all the parties to election frauds in the South, Anderson comes before the public impeaching his own testimony by acknowledged crookedness. Secretary Sherman, on the contrary, has a character to lose, and it is hardly to be credited that he should write such a letter as that imputed to him without knowing it.

Plainly Put.

Petersburg Index-Appeal.

Let Hayes, John Sherman, Tecumseh Sherman and the whole gang discover and remember that they can choke investigation into the crimes of their cronies by no such device of theirs; and that moreover, the knaves who are brought to justice will be punished without reference to the howls and grimaces which may be made in their behalf by themselves, their relatives, and by other natural friends of fraud and partners of perjury and theft.

Wherefore.

New York World.

We regret to see that many of our esteemed contemporaries find fault with Stanley Matthews, not for negotiating with Anderson, but for putting his negotiations on paper. It is not his sin that they detest, but his awkwardness in committing it.

Chilled.

New York World.

It makes the blood of W. E. Chandler run cold to learn the unscrupulous way in which Stanley Matthews went on.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Carolina's Representatives at Work---The Amendment to the Internal Revenue Law---Tobacco Tax Reduced--The Presidential Investigation.

Correspondence of the News.

WASHINGTON, June 7.

Both Houses of Congress are working industriously, and yet the accumulation of important legislation, left, as is usually the case, to be effected at the last moment, is so great, that I fear the adjournment will necessarily be protracted a few days beyond the time agreed on.

Let me summarize some of the most important legislation of the last few days,—premising that most of it is of important bearing upon North Carolina interests and owes its accomplishment as far as it has gone, to the active efforts and influence of our own admirable delegation.

[illegible] which have been incorporated, in the House, in the bill amendatory of the Internal Revenue Laws. In the earlier stages of its consideration, Gen. Vance introduced a new clause, to the effect that whenever "an offense" shall be committed by any internal revenue officer or agent, in the execution of the law, and such officer or agent shall be indicted for such offense in any State Court having jurisdiction of the offense, it shall not be removed to any District or Circuit Court of the U. S. Subsequently, the amendment was amended, on motion of Mr. Riddle, of Tennessee, by inserting the word "criminal" before "offense," and in that shape it prevailed by a vote of 108 to 105. The discussions on the amendment were warmly participated in by Messrs. Scales, Steele, Robbins and Vance, and perhaps others of the delegation, who took occasion to refer to the events and the judicial decisions in North Carolina that rendered such legislation necessary. Hereafter, if the Senate shall concur, (and we may rely upon our ever vigilant Senators for a vigorous defence of the amendment,) we shall hear no more of revenue officials in North Carolina, or elsewhere, outraging the rights of citizens, violating the criminal law, and then going through the farcical ordeal of a mock trial before a packed jury in the Federal Courts. The action thus taken is a gratifying assertion and vindication of the rights of the States as against the aggressions of Federal power and usurpation.

It will carry satisfaction to a large consuming and producing interest in our State to learn of the adoption in the House, by a very decided majority, of the amendment to the same bill reducing the tax on tobacco from twenty-four to sixteen cents per pound. For the effectuation of the reduction all our representatives have labored assiduously, and, on yesterday, Messrs Davis, Robbins and Vance spoke earnestly and effectively in its favor,—a course which cannot fail to commend these to the constituencies which they represent, and which are so immediately and materially interested in the growth and sale of this staple.

Again, the passage of the bill strengthening the life-saving service of the government is of interest to our people on the coast, and Maj. Yeates signalized himself by an earnest speech in its advocacy. Gov. Brogden also spoke in its favor.

You and your readers may well infer, from this recapitulation, the measure of influence possessed by our representatives. It requires time for members of Congress to show their efficiency and acquire this influence, and it is a woful mistake to make changes in a delegation in obedience to a senseless and unthinking clamor for rotation. The policy which would dictate such a course, unless the most imperative moral or political considerations require it, is akin to the fatuity which would give the preference to unskilled over expert labor. In this connection, I may state that the intelligence of the re-nomination of the Hon. A. M. Waddell has been received here with very general gratification. The position which he has attained, as one of the results in part of long continued service, is honorable alike to himself, his constituency and the State. I read with much pleasure, in the Record of this morning, that Senator Christiancy, of Michigan, in the course of a speech in the Senate, on yesterday, referred to Col. Waddell's labors, as Chairman of the House Committee on Post-offices and Post-roads, in terms of high and merited compliment.

The Senate has been principally engaged in the consideration of the Appropriation bills. It has, however, passed the bills granting a subsidy to the United States and Brazilian Mail Steamship line and restoring the franking privilege. Against both of these measures Senator Merrimon voted. Senator Ransom opposed the former, but was temporarily absent, or paired, when the vote was had on the latter.

The Senate, as I had anticipated, has eliminated from the Army bill the reduction clause and the clause prohibiting the use of the army as a posse comelatus. It now goes to Committee of Conference, and it remains to be seen what will be done about it. Senator Merrimon, in a fearless and trenchant manner, forcibly depicted the uses to which the army had been put in interference with State politics and elections, and told some pungent truths in effective style. To influence public sentiment and the action of Congress, it is given out that there is imminent danger of another Indian out-break on an extensive scale. An army, on a basis of 20,000 men, properly concentrated, is ample for all contingencies that are at all likely to arise. We fought the Mexican war with a regular army of less than 10,000 men. It is fresh, in the minds of conservatives and law-loving citizens, that Grant collected a large part of the army in and around Washington, during the electoral count, and they will look with condemnation upon any idea of a military establishment beyond absolutely necessary and legitimate requirements.

You have formed and expressed your opinions as to the developments thus far made before the Potter Investigating Committee. Conceding (what is doubtless the case) that the first witness, Anderson, is a corrupt scoundrel, who was willing to commit forgery and perjury for pay, there is no getting over the documentary evidence which he has laid before the Committee. That evidence establishes two unquestionable facts: That Jno. Sherman, and others of the "visiting Statesmen," knew of fraud and promised to protect its perpetrators; and that Stanley Matthews, Hayes' adviser and brother-in-law, held guilty correspondence with Anderson, with the written evidences of his rascality in his possession. Matthews himself, in his weak attempted vindication of himself in the Senate, admits that he "recommended to office a person who had meditated and prepared a wrong, but had, as it appeared to me (him), withdrawn from performing it." The "wrong," let it be remembered, was a declaration of perjury and swindling, which affected the gravest interests of the country,—a declaration made (say) for a black-mailing purpose. Matthews confesses that he condoned this crime and helped to give effect to the black-mailing purpose.

Anderson's testimony is regarded as, of itself, justifying the investigation, and, in view of his startling disclosures, a very subdued tone has crept into the utterances of the Radical press and politicians.

But perhaps the most damaging evidence yet elicited was that of Judge Levisee, one of the electors of the State of Louisiana, yesterday. Briefly, it is this: Informalities appeared on the [illegible] Presiding officer of the Senate, then required them to be returned for correction and re-signature. The corrected copy was produced in evidence yesterday by the Clerk of the Senate, in whose custody it has been since the count, and Levisee swore that he never signed but the one original document, that he was absent from the State when the "corrected" return was made, and that what purported to be his signature to the instrument was a forgery. And yet this forgery was attested by Mr. Pitt Kellogg, as Governor, over the Great seal of Louisiana, and the Electoral Commission, by a vote of 8 to 7, refused to look behind the face of the returns! The more the gigantic fraud is probed, the more shocking the developments of crime, corruption, and villainy, generally.

"The slime of the serpent is over it all."

It is my purpose to interview all our North Carolina members of Congress on the present aspects of the investigation, etc., and I will communicate their views to-morrow. And here comes the whom I will question now and "colloquize" the others as stated.

"General, what have you to say, this morning, about the Electoral Investigation?"

"Briefly this: I feel satisfied that it was judicious and proper to investigate all the facts connected with the seating of Mr. Hayes, as the Electoral Commission refused to look behind the face of the returns,—the very thing they were organized to do. The developements before the Committee justify this opinion. I further state that it is my opinion that Congress cannot interfere with Mr. Hayes' title; that he can only be removed by impeachment. I am convinced that it is not contemplated to unseat the President: Therefore, all the talk about Mexicanizing the government is purely for partizan effect. Stocks and bonds have not declined in the great cities of the Union, which is the surest test of real public sentiment."

And the General left me, more impressed than before, if possible, with his practical sense and sound judgment.

But more anon. S. G.

Masonic Notes.

The convocation of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons at Winston, was a very interssting one. The attendance was good, and business was transacted with dispatch and thoroughness. The principal object of the meeting, outside of the transaction of routine business, was the election of officers for the ensuing year. This resulted as follows: Grand High Priest, C. W. Alexander, of Charlotte; Deputy G. H. P., C. M. VanOrsdell, of Wilmington; Grand King, Dr. Jno. W. Hunt, of Salem; Grand Scribe, Wm. T. Blackwell of Durham; Grand Treasurer, John Nichols, of Ralegh; Grand Secretary, D. W. Bain, of Raleigh; Grand Chaplain, Rev. P. J. Carrayway, of Winston; Grand Captain of the Host, J. J. Macks, of Wilmington.

The following officers were appointed by the Grand High Priest: Thos. J. Sloan, of Greensboro; Grand Royal Arch Captain, Thomas Daniels of New Berne; Grand Master 3rd Vail, C. F. On Thursday the members present paid a visit to Pilot Mountain, one of the most interesting natural curiosities of our State. The visit was under the auspices of Winston Chapter. It was made an occasion of great pleasure to all the participants. The early part of the day was spent on the mountain, the party returning Friday afternoon.

Before adjournment the body passed a resolution of thanks to the citizens of Winston and Salem, for courtesies shown. These thanks were made special to Winston Chapter, for their hospitality.

The meeting adjourned to meet in annual convocation next year at Durham, on the second Tuesday in June.

During the session of the Grand Chapter, there was also held the Annual Council Royal and Select Masters. The election of officers for this body was held, resulting as follows: M. I. Grand Master, C. M. Van Orsdell, of Wilmington; Dept. M. I. G. M., S. E. Allen, of Winston; Grand Principal conductor of work, A. G. Lee, of Raleigh; Grand Treasurer, John Nichols, Raleigh; Grand Recorder, D. W. CURRITUCK COUNTY.

The County Convention--Coke, Latham and Yeates---Crops,

Correspondence of the News.

CURRITUCK C. H., June 4.

The Democrats of this county held a convention yesterday at this place, when the following county ticket was nominated, viz.:

Jas. M. Woodhouse, Representative.
John F. Frost, Sheriff.
H. B. Ansel, Clerk.
W. H. Bray, Register.

Various resolutions were adopted, among which one recommended Vance for the U. S. Senate; one instructed our delegates to the State Convention to vote for W. N. H. Smith for Chief Justice, and W. F. Martin for Associate; one instructed our delegates to the District Convention to vote for Wm. B. Shaw for Solicitor; another commended the course of Maj. Yeates in Congress, and W. C. Mercer in the State Senate.

COKE, LATHAM AND YEATES.

Congress. I failed to say that a resolution was adopted instructing our delegates to vote for Thos. R. Jernigan, of Hertford county, for the State Senate. I think the above embraces all the facts in regard to the convention.

THE CROPS.

Crops poor. Heavy rains continue. Low lands have been planted twice, and are now to be planted again. Wet weather and clouds have almost surrendered our fields to grass and weeds. Cotton is all dead and the land has been put in corn and peas. This county will not make over half a crop. Wheat is badly affected by rust, almost ready for the harvest, and with continued rains very little, if any, will be saved. Winter oats are fair, though touched by rust. Spring oats are ruined. Irish potato crop excellent.

EARLY WATERMELONS.

Daniel Griggs, of this county, has laid by his crop of watermelons. They are at this early date, full of fruit. With no disaster, he will ship to New York by the 4th of July.

WAKE COUNTY LETTER.

County Politics --- Acceptable Names---We Can Win.

Correspondence of the News.

ST. MARY'S TOWNSHIP, June 7.

For the first time in my life, I have concluded to let you hear from us. If I fail to write as flowery as some of our learned, you have only to consider that I am a farmer at the plow handles.

COUNTY POLITICS.

There is so much chat among the farmers generally, in regard to who shall be our next representatives, is why I feel so much concerned, and why I attempt this writing. I have talked with a great many and heard the opinion of so many that I can inform you and the public correctly. We are bitterly opposed to so many lawyers to represent us. We want farmers awhile. Make a change and see if we can't do better, and have better times. We are satisfied we can't be worsted.

SUCH MEN AS ARE WANTED.

While we are opposed to lawyers, we will not object to one—such a one as R. H. Battle for the Senate—and just here, we have one in our township who has been solicited by almost every one that has met with him, for the past two weeks, for a seat in the lower house of our next General Assembly. That man is W. N. Snelling, who, I will wager, can carry more votes than any other man in the county, for he has the promise of many colored votes. I want you to set his name before the public through your valuable papers, both daily and weekly.

He has been solicited by a good many from Panther Branch Township, also is generally well known throughout the county. I will also make one other suggestion for the next best man, that you and all of us know that will run well and please the people, Capt. J. J. Young, of Panther Branch; he too is well known to the people of the county.

WE CAN SUCCEED.

With the men set forth, with others as suitable, no party can defeat us in our coming election. I do hope the people will look well to the interest of our party before they make good our selections. I have already heard good Democrats say that they would not vote at all before they will have so many lawyers; this we all know is wrong, but, I hope by your assistance, which I must acknowledge has been all it could be, knowing that you through the columns of one of the best papers ever published, will continue right in behalf of our party. C. G. J.

A Pleasant Evening in Warrenton.

After an absence of two years, I found myself once more in Warrenton, the old and once fashionable county seat of Warren. My native fondness for music drew me very naturally to the annual concert, which was announced for Wednesday night of last week, forming the close of the scholastic year of the Female Institute of Warrenton, and inaugurating the summer vacation.

Not desiring to encroach too extensively upon your valuable columns, by a detailed and elaborate criticism of the performances, I trust that a short review will not weary your readers.

I am fully aware of the delicate task of giving an intelligent, as well as just and impartial account of a school concert, and while I cannot gratify the ambition of all the young ladies, by individual praise, I point out a few, who chiefly engrossed my attention during the progress of the concert.

The programme contained thirty numbers; all were well rendered, while some merited particular praise. Among the executants I noticed prominently Miss Katie Parish, as soloist, who surprised me by her rapid execution and clearness of the cadenzas, and Miss Sallie Faulkner, although not so far advanced as the former, exhibited commendable skill. The duetts were characterized by great precision, and strict adherence to the marks of expression. The closing duett, from Athalia, for two pianos and four performers, was acceptably given, and compared favorably with the execution of finished artists, thanks to the training the young ladies received at the hands of their accomplished teacher, Mrs. Wilcox.

I here take occasion to remark that a number of the younger pupils had not received instruction for more than one session, and I was amazed to see them pass through the ordeal as bravely as they did.

The concert was interspersed with readings of essays on various subjects; very creditable compositions they were, but if read with more distinctness it would have added much to the pleasure of the listener. However, this fault must, in part, be attributed to the natural timidity of the young ladies.

The laurels of the evening were won by the Misses Katie and Helen Wilcox. I was surprised to see the gigantic progress these young ladies have made during the last two years, and since I last heard them. Miss Helen has a fine, discriminative ear and a natural talent, which, combined with her great love of the art, and rigid application to study and practice, will, in time, intensify itself into genius. This may seem to some an extravagant assertion, but I mean it in its fullest sense. If both are permitted to pursue their studies with a view to a professional career, I predict for them an enviable distinction.

The concert was a complete success, and a very enjoyable affair. A large audience exhibited its appreciation by frequent applause and a profusion of floral gifts.

The school was founded 37 years ago by the Rev. N. Z. Graves, who is a[illegible] and Mrs. [illegible] ment and culture; their grace and quiet dignity eminently qualify them for the training of the mind and heart of the young ladies entrusted to their care. The school, under the efficient management of Mr. Graves and Mrs. Wilcox, deserves especial recognition by the public, and it would be well for female education at large, if such institutions were more liberally encouraged.

WAKE COUNTY LETTER.

Correspondence of the News.

We had the pleasure of dining with our genial friend Captain C, of St. Mary's, a few days ago, where we met a prominent gentleman representing various townships in the county.

After partaking of "mine friend's" hospitalities, we were shown over his model cotton farm, where, to our utter astonishment, we saw cotton squares as numerous as Gilroy's Rocks. The people in that vicinity can't account for such vegetation, except in one way, that is that they all agree to a unit, and they have had no "muddle," as to who shall be their next Sheriff.

The baby is named "David Lewis,', and there seems to be little or no opposition. He is everybody's friend, and with such a man on the ticket we need no guarantee as to the county. Republicans will turn white and vote the Democratic ticket; in fact, they will all do it. We trust the coming Convention will make his nomination unanimous. We believe this to be the opinion of all throughout the county of Wake. S. H.

The Supreme Court.

Through the columns of your paper, the question of who shall fill our Supreme Court Bench has been greatly canvassed; and I should not intrude upon your time or space, but for the fact that I think there is one name in North Carolina, which has already been mentioned in your paper that does most powerfully appeal to the people of Franklin and Bertie counties, and which would be an honor to the entire State if promoted to the Supreme Court Bench. The Hon. P. H. Winston, Sr. is the man for the place. His talent as a laywer is beyond dispute. His integrity and probity are beyond doubt. And the opinion as expressed by his own people marks him as one whom we as a people would do well to honor. Having known him intimately in Bertie, I can truly say that the people of the First District could have but one voice in regards to him, and that is, that he might be one of the men upon whom our Judicial ermine might fall. Having lived in Franklin county where he was raised, and where he had spent part of his life, I could but know the high respect which his abilities as a jurist have given him.

Some of the papers propose to coin a new word, and to make the term "potterize" express the idea of investigation into political crime. The word is no new one in North Carolina, and at one time in our history had a very infamous significance. It wont do to mix meanings. Let the investigators find another word to express their idea.

Good.

The agent of the Associated Press displayed considerable ingenuity in his arrangement of the testimony taken on Saturday. When we read his report it occurred to us that, perhaps, the able agent thought that Mr. Anderson was the person under investigation, and John Sherman the principal witness against him.

Healing Herbs---The Botanic Depot at Statesville---The Largest in America---Extent of the Trade in Roots and Herbs.

Correspondence of the News.

STATESVILLE, June 8th.

Wallace Bros' Botanic Depot, superintended by Mr. E. Hyams, ships several million pounds of roots, herbs, &c., to all parts of the United States and England, France, Germany, Austria and other nations of the earth. About 1,800 different varieties are collected in this State, many of which are found only in North Carolina. Their exhibition at the Centennial remains at the permanent exhibition in Philadelphia, and should be placed in the Agricultural Department of the State.

They also have an Exhibition in Paris which only comprises the roots and herbs, for which they contended for a prize.

They have also a very large collection and plants in alcohol and salt for preservation.

They have a very large Tycoper Solidum, or as it is commonly called, Indian Bread, which contains more nourishment than anything we eat, and makes splendid starch.

Their house is very large, 50x100 feet, 2½ stories high, and have two presses and keep five hands busily engaged.

About 150 merchants in the interior of the State make their support by buying these articles for them.

The All Right Cook Stove.

Thirty-five thousand now in daily use. Warranted in every particular. Prices as low as any first-class store in the country. Write for list of furniture and prices. Julius Lewis & Co., Raleigh, N. C., sole agents for the All Right Cook Stove.

Notice.

I hereby notify all persons whose accounts were made previous to the 1st day of April, 1878, that unless said accounts are paid on or before the 25th day of June, 1878, I shall put them in the hands of my Attorney for collection.

Keep Cool.

This is a bit of good advice in these "trying" times. 'Tis also a suggestion easy to follow, since by investing in Blake's Ice, the purest and best, one can have a luxury to cool a fevered brow or a parched throat. In our climate ice has a thousand uses and is a necessity. *

Senator Merrimon.

In the reading and in the review of the card of Judge Merrimon, it must be constantly borne in mind that he is a Senator in Congress from the State of North Carolina, that he occupies an exalted position in which he has displayed both ability and merit, that he has acquired and sustains a national reputation, and is a member of the Democratic party. Therefore whatever he writes or utters commands attention and respect, and any review or criticism of his conduct that shall fall below the level of the position to which he has been assigned is not worthy to be read in connection with any subject the discussion of which he may enter upon.

It is upon such elevated ground that the news proceeds to further discuss the matter to which he has invited the public attention of the people of North Carolina through the publication of his card. It is as a Democrat that it will make reference to his political antecedents, and it is by the standard of the discipline of that organization to which he belongs that it will test his conduct and weigh his words. Were he of another organization, possessed of less merit, and standing in an inferior position, the matter would not be deemed of such consideration as to command the attention and respect here given to it. And even in the case presented, if nothing more was involved than the mere candidature for the Senatorial succession, the News would not esteem this a matter of such grave and significant import as to merit serious or extended notice.

But there are other considerations involved. The very ground-work of the Democratic party in North Carolina is in dispute, and upon the verdict of the jury of the public in this case, is to be ascertained whether party organization, as represented and sustained by the Democratic majority, is to prevail against the private judgment, personal preferences or individual resentments of the minority. If Senator Merrimon has made out his case and stands before the Democracy of the State and the country vindicated in his action and justified in his conduct, then it must be the judgment of the highest tribunal to which politics and parties are amendable, to wit, the people, that the Democratic party is without a cause, and has no right of organization to be protected, enforced or guaranteed, and is therefore out of the court of public sentiment.

Senator Merrimon publishes a card, the only effect of which can be to distract, divide and weaken the Democratic party. In all kindness, he appears to be unfortunate in his relations with that organization. By defying its will in the winter of 1872, he split the Democratic party in twain, and only the good sense of the Democrats of the Legislature, and the temper of the times, restored it again. The people had well-nigh lost sight of the action of the Senator and his friends in 1872, when he comes upon them again on the eve of a very important State Convention, in which are known to exist among its constituent elements the seeds of dangerous discord, from which may be presented personal, rather than political issues, and with the mad fury of one bent upon the destruction of himself and friends, he would hurl a firebrand into a powder magazine.

It was the pretext of that conduct in 1872 and which it is now sought in his card to justify, that the caucus was packed, its integrity destroyed by the active agency of Governor Vance in tampering with the individuals who composed it before they became members of an assembled body. Now what was the history of that caucus and its action? There were, as now remembered, ninety-eight Democrats in the Legislature. When the Senatorial caucus assembled, there were found to be present seventy-nine Democrats, eighteen away on their positive refusal to attend. The first action of the caucus was to pass a resolution treating the eighteen refractory gentlemen as absent brethren, and declaring that the majority of the whole Democratic strength of the legislature should be necessary to a choice. On the first ballot, Governor Vance received just forty-nine votes, a bare majority of the whole; thirty votes cast he did not receive, and eighteen were away, making forty-eight. To say nothing of what might have been the result and influence of their presence, it is an absurdity to state that a caucus was packed before it had ever assembled, which, out of ninety-eight votes, only cast, forty-nine for the candidate who it was said had packed it by appealing to and operating upon its members singly, one by one, before they left their homes, in many cases. But the charge is boldly made that Governor Vance did pack the caucus, and it is asserted that he distinctly stated that he had done so by securing the pledges of a majority of the Democratic members to vote for him. The Senator is mistaken as to what Governor Vance did say. He said to Judge Merrimon that he had seen himself, or others had seen for him, enough of the Democratic members elect, who were for him, to assure his nomination, beyond a doubt, and it would save the feelings of Judge Merrimon not to present his name for nomination, these facts being true. But he did not say nor mean to imply that he had and were his friends and there were enough to elect him. That is all Governor Vance ever meant to convey in respect to "electioneering" or "packing," and it was in a spirit of generous regard and not through fear for himself, or a purpose to frighten off his rival that Governor Vance so openly and unguardedly approached Judge Merrimon, only to be, as it afterwards transpired, misunderstood and taken advantage of.

When the senatorial preferences of members elect at the August election in 1872, first began to be ascertained, it was not understood that Judge Merrimon was a candidate in the field for the senatorial nomination. On the contrary, it was understood that he would not be, and Judge Merrimon was reported to have so declared, unequivocally and without hesitation. It was announced, instead, that he would contest the gubernatorial election before the Legislature, that he had the proofs which would sustain him; and indeed the State Executive Committee seriously determined on that course, and had set to work systematically gathering evidence upon which to base such contest. And long before it was known that Judge Merrimon would offer for the Senate, the information had been communicated to Governor Vance that a majority of the members elect, expressing themselves from their homes, were for Vance for the Senatorial succession. Upon such a statement of facts, the charges fall to the ground that Governor Vance had tampered with the legislators elect, and there is not now, and never has been, the slightest excuse or justification for the action of Judge Merrimon and his friends in defying and defeating the will of the Democratic party, and therein he cannot ever sustain himself before the people of North Carolina. He does himself injury, and repeats the injury he inflicted on the Democratic party in 1872, whenever he alludes to the matter in a public way.

Senator Merrimon exposes the weakness of his position when he appeals to precedents in like cases with his own, to sustain him. Of the list of Senators which he enumerates as having been elected under circumstances similar to his own, he cannot point to a single instance in which the conditions were like those surrounding the situation of which he took advantage. And it may be said, and Senator Merrimon might well take it to heart, and congratulate himself that it is so, that of the Senators who have climbed into Congress from the shoulders of their political adversaries, not one of them ever stood again so fair with his party, as would Senator Merrimon stand in North Carolina, if he would but cease the parade of his imaginary wrongs, and give proof positive, which this card now renders necessary, that he means hereafter to stand by and sustain the organization of the Democratic party, abide and support its action.

Inveighing, as he does, against the rights of the people to express themselves in their county meetings, Senator Merrimon places it within the power of his enemies to prove him disloyal to the party. His complaints savor of a restless ambition, which, centering in self, is the very soul of insubordination; which, if it cannot dictate, makes no concealment of its purpose to destroy; a rule or ruin determination that will permit the exercise of no right which comes in conflict with its own interests and cherished objects. Such a spirit cannot be tolerated in the politics of North Carolina, and if Senator Merrimon has made the mistake of supposing that the privileges of the people are to be surrendered in deference to his wishes, and that the public voice must be heard only to flatter his ambition, he has committed a great blunder, scarcely less fatal than the destruction he has deliberately planned for himself in again kindling the spirit of party insubordination, and inciting rebellion in the ranks of the Democracy of North Carolina.

General Johnstone Jones.

This accomplished gentleman, for more than two years controlling this paper, as its editor-in-chief, left the city yesterday to take up his residence at Morganton, where he will engage in the practice of the law.

The journalistic services of General Jones are known and appreciated wherever the Charlotte Observer, Sentinel of this city, and the News, with all of which he was at some time connected, were read. In the profession of journalism in this State he has stood deservedly high, and for courteous bearing and strict professional conduct toward his editorial brethren, he has not been excelled by any gentlemen who ever stood at the head of a press in North Carolina.

In his new home, and returning to the profession of the law, the News tenders him its best wishes for the highest measure of success attainable, and in every effort of his life the most perfect prosperity, happiness, and enjoyment. To the people of Morganton, to whose society he and his accomplished family are the acquisition which Raleigh has lost, it bespeaks for him the reception to which his merits as a gentleman pre-eminently entitle him.

Regretting the severance of a connection, which so long established had thoroughly and pleasantly identified him with the paper and its patrons, the News has now to say good-bye to its old and faithful editor.

ELECTION, THURSDAY, AUGUST 1ST.

Why Doubt?

A steamship company knowing that success begets confidence, may advertise that they never lost a passenger or met with serious delay, and no one questions the statement. But if a physician, after many years of investigation, announces the discovery of a remedy that positively cures certain forms of disease, and backs up his statements by indisputable evidence his word is doubted, and his motives questioned. Is not such prejudice unreasonable? There are those afflicted with coughs, colds, consumption, liver complaint, or some affection of the blood, that still refuse to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, notwithstanding they have witnessed its efficacy in others similarly affected. They "have no confidence in advertised medicines." Does the guide board at the corners of a country road, which advertises the way to go, shake your confidence, and create distrust in the route? Do you refuse to patronize railroads that advertise aheir their time tables? Then why doubt the truths published concerning Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines? If debilitated females fail to receive the releif promised after using the Favorite Prescription, the money will be refunded. Full particulars given in the People's Commen Sense Medical Adviser, a work of over 900 pages. Price $1,50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Trinity Commencement.

The Alumni meet on the 11th inst.; on Wednesday 12, Bishop Wightman will preach the sermon in the morning, and at 2 30 p. m. Gov. Colquitt, of Ga., will deliver the address. This an attractive programe. Commencement on the 12th. Among other things unusual, three ladies are to graduate, making a graduating class of twenty-two.

All the railroads will give return tickets.

Visitors from the East should go up on Tuesday; they will arrive at Trinity about 6 30 p. m. *

Advance of Science.

The advance of science within the last decade has been so truly wonderful that many are ready to exclaim that nothing is impossible. One of the greatest boons in this remarkable progress is the discovery of Barham's Infallible Pile Cure, for Hemorrhoids or Piles Manufactured by the Barham Pile Cure Co., Durham, N. C. Price $1 a box, sent post-paid. *

The Prevention of a Terrible Disaster.

No disorders, excepting the most deadly forms of lung disease, involve such a tremendous destruction of organic tissue as those which fasten upon the kidneys. Such maladies, when they become chronic—and none are so liable to assume that phase—completely wreck the system. To prevent this terrible disaster, recourse should be had upon the first manifestation of trouble, to Hostetter's Bitters, which experience has proved to be highly effective as a means of imparting tone and regularity to the organs of urination, as well as to the liver, stomach and bowels. Another beneficial result of this medicine, naturally consequent upon its diuretic action is the elimination from the blood of impurities which beget rheumatism, gout, dropsy, and other maladies. By increasing the activity of the kidneys, it augments the depurative efficiency of those organs, which are most important outlets for the escape of such impurities.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. oct26dawly

Grape Culture and Wine.

Mr. A. Speer, of New Jersey, one of the largest grape producers in the east, commenced but a few years ago in a small way, to make wine from currants, blackberries, and other fruits. He now controls large vineyards from which his famous Port Grape Wine is made, which chemists and physicians say rival the world for its beneficial effects on weakly and aged persons.

Whitsuntide.

To-day is Whitsunday or Whitsuntide, so called from the fact that the festival of Pentecost, being a favorable time for administering baptism, those who received it were clothed in white to symbolize the spiritual purity which baptism confers, It is observed by the Jews and by the Christian churches.

The usual trains will run as on other days. Speeches from several distinguished visitors, Gov. Vance, Dr. Henson, and others may be expected. The addresses and other exercises of Tuesday and Wednesday will be arranged to suit the arrivals and departures of trains.

The Circuit Court.

The U. S. Circuit Court, Judge Brooks presiding, was engaged yesterday, both morning and afternoon, in the investigation of the charges preferred by Col. I. J. Young against Col. A. W. Shaffer, Registrar in bankruptcy. The testimony for the prosecution was closed in the afternoon, and upon the counsel for the defence asking for time to go into the testimony and get their witnesses, the court announced that they would be accommodated, but that the matter must be disposed of during the next week. Judge Brooks will state on Monday when the case will again be taken up.

The Federal Court in Charlotte.

The bill which passed the House of Representatives, providing for holding of terms of the United States Circuit and District Courts for the western district of North Carolina, in Charlotte, prescribes that the terms shall begin on the second Monday in June and the second Monday in December.

Tempting.

The bill of fare at the Waller House for to-day is but another instance of the great good taste of its proprietor in getting up a repast. The dinners are finding favor in the sight and taste of our epicures, for all of us sigh more or less for the "flesh pots of Egypt." Those who have a relish for the choicest of things edible will be able to gratify such taste to-day.

At Last.

The appropriation of $20,000 voted by Congress on Friday, for the completion of the post office in our city, gives some hope that the edifice may now be finished. Let us indulge in the pleasing hope that the officials here may not be dilatory, but that the work will immediately go on to speedy completion. The present necessity for more ample accommodations is too great for the work to be delayed a moment.

Wake Criminal Court.

This court met at 16 a. m. yesterday, His Honor Judge Strong presiding. The session was but short, and was devoted solely to the hearing of motions etc. The business for the Term was then concluded.

In this connection we beg to express our thanks to the clever Clerk, Mr. W. R. Gales, for favors shown us.

Fire Department,

At the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen, on Friday evening, Capt. Joseph H. Green, was unanimously re-elected chief of the Fire Department. Four Fire Commissioners, Dr. Hogg, and Messrs. H. M. Tupper, J. C. S. Lumsden, and W. G. Upchurch, were elected by acclamation.

Penitentiary Recruit.

Sheriff M. E. Alexander, of Mecklenburg county, yesterday delivered to the Penitentiary authorities one Wiley Johnson, convicted of assault with intent to commit rape, and sentenced to imprisonment for 5 years.

Cotton Report.

Summer's dulness now sits upon all business. The cotton trade comes in for its spare of the inactivity. This is evidence by the report of the receipts for the past week, which were only 96 bales.

The Graded School.

The exercises of this school closed on Friday last. Capt. Dugger, the principal, reports that the session has been a very satisfactory one in all respects, and the progress of the pupils all that could have been desired.

Attention R, L. I!

Meet promptly Monday night at 8½ o'clock. By order of

Captain
Commanding.

R. I. WILLIAMS, O. S.

Political.

The Democratic Township Committee of this township will meet to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Deaths.

Died on Friday night last in this city, Mr. Joseph H. Hicks, in the 54th year of his age. Mr. Hicks was the brother of Col. W. J. Hicks, Superintendent of The Penitentiary. He was reared in Spottsylvania county Va., and has been a citizen of Raleigh for only a few years. At the time of his death, he was an overseer at the Penitentiary. He leaves a wife and seven children. His funeral will occur from the Salisbury Street Baptist church to day at 11 a. m.

Changed Schedule.

To-day a change in the running of trains on the North Carolina Railway goes into effect.

The new time table is published elsewhere. The mail train going west now arrives here at 2:56 p. m.; going east, the mail arrives here at 1:25 p. m. The western bound freight leaves here at 7:45 a. m. The eastern bound arrives at 3:30 a. m. The "Shoo Fly" train for Goldsboro, leaves at 8 a. m., and arrives at that point at 11:55 a. m. Returning, leaves Goldsboro at 4 p. m.; arrives here at 7:55 p. m.

The educational and charitable institutions of New Orleans are in constant receipt of large funds from the Louisiana State Lottery Company, an Institution especially chartered by the State in 1868. One of its Semi-annual Drawings will take place in that city on the 11th of June. This drawing will be under the personal supervision of Generals G. T. Beauregard, of Louisiana, and Jubal A. Early, of Virginia The prizes, as set forth in a scheme in another column, aggregate an enormous sum including a capital prize of $1000,-000.

Delegates to the State Convention, passing through Goldsboro this week will find first class accommodation at Bonitz' new Hotel, and at reasonable rates.

Something Worth Attention.

Consigners of county produce should ship to A. C. Sanders & Co., because they are the only commission merchants in Raleigh. They do not buy at all on their own account, but make prompt returns, at the same prices they sell at, which are the highest this market affords.

W. W. BENNETT.

MOSSY CREEK, Tenn., August 22, 1876.

Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:

I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

LEE'S PREPARED AGRICULTURAL LIME.

To The Cotton Growers of North Carolina.

The Commissioner of Agriculture having decided that I cannot have an Agency in your State for the sale of this cheap and valuable fertilizer, without paying a tax of $500—which I cannot do without materially advancing the price, I solicit your orders for it, which will be promptly filled on the following terms on board cars in Richmond:

$12 Per Ton Cash, or $15 Per

TON for an approved acceptance on Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington, Petersburg, Norfolk, or Richmond, payable on the 1st of November next, or at 8 months from date.

I respectfully refer you to Messrs. J. J. Thomas, Raleigh; J. W. O'Neil, Clayton and others who sold it last spring, and to the various farmers who used it, who say it makes as much cotton as fertilizers costing 3 or 4 times as much. Address,

BEAUTY:

OR THE

Secret of a Fair Face.

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

VEGETINE.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System.

ITS MEDICINAL PROPERTIES ARE

Alterative, Tonic, Solvent and Diuretic.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated, that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scald-head and Ringworm, VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, arising from Internal Ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, VEGETINE acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has given such perfect satisfaction as the VEGETINE. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by VEGETINE have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, VEGETINE is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable BLOOD PURIFIER yet placed before the public.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—Having during the past five years sold your Vegetine, which has been praised by my customers highly for the various diseases requiring a blood purifier, and as I have heard very favorable reports of its use, I cordially indorse it as a good remedy, and believe it to be what you claim it is; viz., 'The Great Blood Purifier" of the day.

Respectfully yours,
J. W. ABEL, M. D. Druggist.

PHYSICIANS SAY IT.—Vegetine gives an equal circulation of the blood. All physicians will agree that there is scarcely a disease but that could almost instantly be disposed of if pure blood could be circulated generously through the parts affected. Now, this is the way in which Vegetine performs its wonderful cures. Vegetine is exclusively a vegetable compound, made from roots, herbs, and barks.
